- (11) for section 194, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“194. Appellate Tribunal.—(1) There shall be established a Customs Appellate Tribunal, hereinafter called as the Appellate Tribunal to exercise jurisdiction, powers and perform functions conferred upon it under this Act.

(2) The Appellate Tribunal shall consist of members who shall be appointed by the Federal Government in such numbers, in accordance with such procedure and on such terms and conditions as the Federal Government may prescribe by rules, which shall be made and take effect notwithstanding anything contained in section 219 of this Act or the Federal Public Service Commission Ordinance, 1977 (XLV of 1977) or any other law or rules, for the time being in force:

Provided that the existing members including Chairman of the Appellate Tribunal shall continue to hold office, on the same terms and conditions as applicable to them prior to the commencement of the Finance Act, 2024, till the completion of their term of office unless removed earlier on the grounds provided in the proviso to sub-section (5).

(3) A person shall be eligible to be appointed as a member of the Appellate Tribunal, if he-

- (a) is an advocate of a High Court for not less than fifteen years having expertise in Customs Laws and experience of pleading at least fifty Customs cases at various forums; and possesses such other qualifications as may be prescribed by rules;
- (b) is an officer of the Customs Service of Pakistan in BS-21 or above; or
- (c) is an officer of the Customs Service of Pakistan in BS-20, having served in such grade for three years or more.

(4) The Federal Government shall appoint any member possessing qualifications provided in clause (a) of sub-section (3) as Chairman of the Appellate Tribunal. The Chairman shall hold office for a period of three years provided that the Federal Government may reappoint the Chairman for such further term or terms as it may deem appropriate.

(5) The members including, the Chairman shall cease to hold office on attaining the age of sixty-two years provided that the members falling under clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (3) shall cease to hold office on attaining the age of superannuation, under the law regulating their service:

Provided that a member including the Chairman may be removed by the Federal Government, on the recommendation of performance review committee, to be constituted by the rules made under sub-section (2), at any time before the expiry of his term or attaining the age of superannuation, as the case may be, on grounds, inter-alia, of inefficiency or misconduct, as prescribed by the rules made under sub-section (2).

(12) for section 194A, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“194A. Appeals to the Appellate Tribunal.—(1) Any person or an officer of Customs aggrieved by any of the following orders may appeal to the Appellate Tribunal against such orders:—

- (a) a decision or order passed by an officer of Customs not below the rank of Additional Collector under section 179;
- (b) an order passed by the Collector (Appeals) under section 193;
- (c) an order passed under section 195;
- (d) an order passed in revision by the Director General Customs Valuation under section 25D:

Provided that such appeal shall be heard by a special bench of at least two members one Judicial Member and one Technical Member, constituted by the Chairman; and

- (e) an appellate order or a quasi-judicial order passed by the Chief Collector of Customs under provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder provided that such appeal shall be heard by a special bench consisting of one technical member and one judicial member:

Provided that the Appellate Tribunal may, in its discretion, refuse to admit an appeal in respect of an order referred to in sub-section (1), where-

- (i) the value of the goods confiscated without option having been given to the owner of the goods to pay a fine in lieu of confiscation under section 181; or
- (ii) in any disputed case other than a case where the determination of any question having a relation to rate of duty of customs or to the value of goods for purposes of assessment is in issue or is one of the points in issue, the difference in duty involved or the duty involved; or
- (iii) the amount of fine or penalty determined by such order does not exceed fifty thousand rupees.

(2) Every appeal in the prescribed form and accompanied by the prescribed fee so specified in sub-section (3) under this section shall be filed, within thirty days from the date on which the decision or order sought to be appealed against is communicated to the Board or the Collector of Customs, or as the case may be, the other party preferring the appeal.

(3) An application under sub-section (1) by a person other than an officer of customs, shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty thousand rupees in case of a company, and five thousand rupees in case other than a company.

(4) The Appellate Tribunal may, upon application in writing, admit an appeal after the expiration of the period specified in sub-section (2) if it is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

(5) Notwithstanding that an appeal has been filed under this section, the assessed or adjudged amount of duty and taxes shall be payable, unless recovery thereof has been stayed by the Appellate Tribunal:

Provided that on filing of application for grant of stay, the Appellate Tribunal may after affording an opportunity of being heard to the Collector having jurisdiction, for reasons to be recorded, stay the recovery of duty and taxes for thirty days, during which period a notice shall be issued to the respondents and after hearing the parties, order may be confirmed or varied as the Tribunal deems fit but stay order shall in no case exceed ninety days.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where any reference or appeal was preferred with the approval of Collector of Customs by the officer of lower rank than that of the Collector and the reference or appeal is pending before an appellate forum or the Court, such reference or appeal shall be deemed to have been so filed by the Collector and for removal of doubt it is hereby declared that the pending appeals shall not abate solely on this ground.”;

(13) for section 194B, the following shall be substituted, namely:-

“194B. Decision of appeals by the Appellate Tribunal.—(1) The Appellate Tribunal may after giving the parties to the appeal an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against. The Appellate Tribunal may record additional evidence and decide the case but shall not remand the case for recording the additional evidence:

Provided that the appeal shall be decided within ninety days of filing the appeal:

Provided further that where an appeal is not decided within the aforesaid period, the Appellate Tribunal with the consent of both parties and upon reasons to be recorded in writing may extend for a further period of sixty days.

(2) At the first hearing of appeal, the Appellate Tribunal shall—

- (a) bring to the notice of the Appellant; the provisions relating to alternate dispute resolution under section 195C of the Act; and
- (b) in case the Appellant decline the option of alternate dispute resolution and wish to continue with the appeal, fix date or dates for hearing and decision of the appeal in consultation with both the Appellant and Respondent and in accordance with the rules.

(3) The Appellate Tribunal shall decide the appeal on the date or dates fixed, and no adjournment shall be granted except-

- (a) where there are compelling reasons for adjournment, to be recorded in writing by the Appellate Tribunal; and

(b) on mandatory payment of such cost as the Appellate Tribunal may deem fit, which shall not be less than fifty thousand rupees.

(4) The Appellate Tribunal may, at any time within fifteen days from the date of communication of order, with a view to rectifying any clerical, arithmetical errors or error arising therein from accidental slip and omission apparent from the record, amend any order passed by it under-sub-section (1) and shall make such amendments if the mistake is brought to its notice by the Collector of Customs or the other party to the appeal:

Provided that an amendment which has the effect of enhancing the assessment or reducing a refund or otherwise increasing the liability of the other party shall not be made under this sub-section, unless the Appellate Tribunal has given notice to the party of its intention to do so and has allowed a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

(5) The Appellate Tribunal shall send a copy of every order passed by it under this section, disposing of an appeal, to the officer of Customs and in valuation cases also to the Director General Valuation, and the other party to the appeal:

Provided that the order of the Appellate Tribunal shall remain pending for thirty days, if the Collector or other party to the appeal, prefers a reference to the High Court within this period.

(6) Save as otherwise expressly provided in section 196, an order passed by the Appellate Tribunal in appeal shall be final.”;

(14) for section 194C, the following shall be substituted;

“194C. Procedure of Appellate Tribunal.—(1) The powers and functions of the Appellate Tribunal may be exercised and discharged by Benches constituted by the Chairman from amongst the members thereof.

(2) Subject to the provisions contained in sub-sections (3) and (4), the procedure of the Appellate Tribunal including constitution of benches, case management system, distribution of cases and other matters ancillary or incidental thereto shall be regulated by the rules under this Act.

(3) Every appeal against a decision or order deciding a case involving duty, tax, penalty or fine exceeding five million rupees shall be heard by a Special Bench for hearing such appeals and such Bench shall consist of not less than two members and shall include at least one judicial member and one technical member:

Provided that the Chairman may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, constitute Benches including special Benches consisting of two or more –

- (a) technical members; or
- (b) judicial members.

(4) The Chairman or any other member of the Appellate Tribunal authorized in this behalf by the Chairman may, sitting singly, dispose of any case which has been allotted to the bench of which he is a member where,-

- (a) the value of the goods confiscated without option having been given to the owner of the goods to pay a fine in lieu of confiscation under section 181; or
- (b) in any disputed case, the difference in duty or tax involved, or the amount of fine or penalty involved does not exceed five million rupees.

(5) If the members of a Bench differ in opinion on any point, the point shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority, if there is a majority, but if the members are equally divided, they shall state the point or points on which they differ and the case shall be referred by the Chairman for hearing on such point or points by one or more of the other members of the Appellate Tribunal, and such point or points shall be decided according to the opinion of the majority of the members of the Appellate Tribunal who have heard the case including those who first heard it:

Provided that, where the members of a Special Bench are equally divided, the points on which they differ shall be decided by the Chairman.

(6) The Appellate Tribunal shall, for the purposes of discharging its functions, have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), when trying suit in respect of the following matters, namely:-

- (a) discovery and inspection;
- (b) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (c) compelling the production of books of account and other documents; and
- (d) issuing commissions.

(7) Any proceeding before the Appellate Tribunal shall be deemed to be judicial proceeding within the meaning of sections 193 and 228 and for the purpose of section 196 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860), and the Appellate Tribunal shall be deemed to be a Court for all the purposes of sections 480 and 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898).”;

- (15) for section 195C, the following shall be substituted, namely:-

“195C. Alternative dispute resolution of ADR.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, or the rules made there under, any aggrieved person, in connection with any dispute pertaining to liability of customs-duty, admissibility of refund or rebate, waiver or fixation of penalty or fine, confiscation of goods, relaxation of any time period or procedural and technical condition which is under litigation in any court of law or an appellate authority, except in the cases where criminal proceedings have been initiated or where interpretation of question of law having larger revenue impact in the opinion of the Board is involved, may apply to the Board for the appointment of a committee for the resolution of dispute in appeal.

(2) The application for alternate dispute resolution under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by an initial proposition for resolution of the dispute, including an offer of payment of duties and taxes.

(3) The Board may, subject to the provisions of sub-sections (1) and (2), after examination of the application of an aggrieved person, appoint a committee, within fifteen days of receipt of such application, consisting of-

- (a) a retired judge not below the rank of a judge of a High Court, who shall also be the Chairperson of the Committee, to be nominated by the Board from a panel notified by the Law and Justice Division for such purpose;
- (b) an officer of customs not below the rank of Chief Collector having jurisdiction over the case; and
- (c) a person to be nominated by the applicant from a panel notified by the Board, comprising-
  - (i) chartered accountants, cost and management accountants and advocates having minimum ten years experience in the field of taxation:

- (ii) reputable businessmen as nominated by Chambers of Commerce and Industry; and
- (iii) officer of Customs Service of Pakistan who stood retired in BS 21 or above.

(4) The Board shall communicate the order of appointment of committee to the aggrieved person, court of law or the appellate authority where the dispute is pending and the concerned Collector.

(5) The committee constituted under sub-section (3) shall examine the issue and may, if it deems necessary, conduct inquiry, seek expert opinion, direct any officer of customs or any other person to conduct an audit and shall decide the dispute by majority, within forty-five days of its constitution extendable by another fifteen days for the reasons to be recorded in writing.

(6) The recovery of duties and taxes payable by the applicant in connection with any dispute for which a committee has been appointed under sub-section (3) shall be deemed to have been stayed from the date of appointment of the committee up to the date of decision of committee or its dissolution, as the case may be.

(7) If the aggrieved person is satisfied with the decision of the committee, he shall withdraw the appeal pending before the court of law or any appellate authority and communicate the order of withdrawal to the Collector within thirty days of the service of the decision.

(8) The decision of the committee under sub-section (5) shall be binding on the Collector subject to the provision of sub-section (7).

(9) Subject to sub-section (7), the Collector shall also withdraw the appeal, if any, pending before any court of law or an appellate authority in respect of dispute as mentioned in sub-section (1) within thirty days of the communication of the order of withdrawal by the aggrieved person to the Collector.

(10) If the committee fails to make recommendations within a stipulated period of sixty days under sub-section (5), the Board shall dissolve the committee by an order in writing and the matter shall be decided by the appellate authority where the dispute is pending.

(11) The Board shall communicate the order of dissolution to the court of Law or the appellate authority and the Collector and the aggrieved person.

(12) The aggrieved person, on receipt of the order of dissolution, shall communicate the order to the appellate authority, which shall decide the appeal within the stipulated period as provided under the relevant provision, of the communication of the said order.

(13) The aggrieved person shall make payment of customs duty and other taxes as determined by the committee under sub-section (5) and all decisions, orders and judgments made or passed shall stand modified to that extent.

(14) The Board may prescribe the amount to be paid as remuneration for the services of the members of the committee, other than the member appointed under clause (b) of sub-section (3).

(15) The Board may, by notification in the official Gazette make rules for carrying out the purposes of this section, including the procedures and manner of conducting of ADR committee meetings.”;

(16) for section 196, the following shall be substituted, namely:-

“196. Reference to High Court.—(1) Within thirty days of the order of the Appellate Tribunal under sub-section (3) of section 194B, the aggrieved person or any officer of Customs not below the rank of Deputy Collector or Deputy Director, authorized by the Collector or Director in writing, may file a reference, in the prescribed form, along with a statement of the case, before the High Court, stating any question of law or a mixed question of law and fact arising out of such order:

Provided that the applicant shall also file complete record of the Appellate Tribunal within fifteen days of preferring an application under this section.

(2) A reference to the High Court under this section shall be heard by a Special Bench, constituted for hearing cases under this section, comprising of not less than two judges of the High Court and the provisions of section 98 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall apply to the extent possible to such cases, notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

(3) The Special Bench shall decide a reference within six months from the date of its filing. The High Court upon hearing a reference under this section shall decide the question of law or a mixed question of law and fact raised in the reference and pass judgment thereon specifying the grounds on which such judgment is based and the Appellate Tribunal's order shall stand modified accordingly.

(4) The High Court shall establish a case management system to ensure that sufficient number of Special Benches are constituted, so as to ensure that a reference filed under this section is decided within the stipulated six months.

(5) Notwithstanding that a reference has been made to the High Court, the duty shall be payable in accordance with the order of the Appellate Tribunal:

Provided that the recovery shall not be made by the Collector for fifteen days from the date of communication of the order of the Appellate Tribunal:

Provided further that, the amount of duties and taxes if reduced as a result of the judgment in the reference, and any amount of duty and tax is found refundable, the High Court may, on application submitted by an officer of Customs authorized by the Collector or Director, within thirty days of the judgment of the High Court, that he wants to prefer petition for leave to appeal to the Supreme Court, make an order authorizing the Collector to postpone the refund until the disposal of the appeal by the Supreme Court.

(6) Where recovery of duty has been stayed by the High Court through an order, such order shall cease to have effect on the expiration of a period of six months following the day on which it is made unless the reference is decided, or such order is withdrawn by the High Court earlier.

(7) Section 5 of the Limitation Act, 1908 (IX of 1908), shall apply to an application made to the High Court under sub-section (1).

(8) An application under sub-section (1) by a person other than the officer of Customs authorized by the Collector or Director shall be accompanied by a fee of fifty thousand rupees.

(9) Notwithstanding anything in this Act, where any reference or appeal was preferred with the approval of Collector by an officer below the rank of Collector, and the reference or appeal is pending before appellate forum or the Court, such reference or appeal shall be deemed to have been preferred and shall be deemed always to have been so preferred by the Collector or Director.

(10) The Court shall send a copy of the judgment under the seal of the Court to the Appellate Tribunal.”;

- (5) after section 11C, the following new sections shall be inserted, namely:—

“11D. Best judgment Assessment. — (1) Where a person,-

- (a) fails to furnish a sales tax return in response to notice under sub-section (2A) of section 26; or
- (b) fails to produce before the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner under sections 25 or 38A, accounts, documents and records required, or any other relevant document or evidence that may be required by him, the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner may, after a notice to show cause to such person, based on any available information or material and to the best of his judgment, make an assessment of tax payable or refund due and also charge penalty and default surcharge.

(2) For the purposes of clause (b) of sub-section (1), the officer of Inland Revenue may also disallow or reduce a registered person input tax on goods if the registered person is unable, to provide invoice or other record or evidence of the transaction or circumstances giving rise to such claim.

(3) Where a best judgment assessment has been made due to default of clause (a) of sub-section (1) and the person files the return within sixty days of issuance of order under this section thereafter and pays the amount of tax payable along with default surcharge and penalty, the notice to show cause and the order of assessment shall abate.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1), where the Federal Board of Revenue has specified conditions for the purpose of determination of minimum tax liability in respect of a person who is required to file return but who fails to file such return, the Officer of Inland Revenue shall determine such liability of the registered person in accordance thereof.”

11E. Assessment of tax and recovery of tax not levied or short levied or erroneously refunded.—(1) Where due to any reason, including by way of collusion or a deliberate act, any tax or charge has not been levied or short levied or where the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner suspects on the basis of audit or otherwise that due to any reason a person has-

- (a) not paid or short paid due sales tax;
- (b) claimed input tax credit or refund which is not admissible; or
- (c) has obtained an amount of refund not due,

the officer of Inland Revenue after issuing a show cause notice to the person shall pass an order to determine and recover the amount of tax unpaid or short paid, inadmissible input tax or refund, or unlawful refund obtained and shall also impose penalty and default surcharge in accordance with sections 33 and 34.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the officer of Inland Revenue may also disallow input tax on goods or services if the taxpayer is unable, without reasonable cause, to provide a receipt, or invoice or other record or evidence of the transaction or circumstances giving rise to such claim.

(3) Where a tax or charge has not been levied under clause (a) of sub-section (1), the amount of tax shall be recovered as tax fraction of the value of supply.

11F. Failure to withhold sales tax.— Where any person, required to withhold sales tax under sub-section (7) of section 3, fails to withhold the tax or having withheld the tax fails to deposit the same in the prescribed manner, the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner shall after a notice to such person to show cause pass an order to determine and recover the amount in default and impose penalty and default surcharge under section 33 and 34.

11G. Limitation for assessment.—(1) The show cause notice under sections 11D to 11F shall be issued within five years, from the end of the financial year in which the relevant date falls.

(2) An order under sections 11D, 11E and 11F shall be made within one hundred and twenty days of issuance of show cause notice or within such extended period as the Commissioner may, for reasons to be recorded, in writing specify, provided that such extended period shall in no case exceed from ninety days:

Provided that any period during which the proceedings are adjourned on account of a stay order or Alternative Dispute Resolution proceedings or the time taken through adjournment by the registered person not exceeding sixty days shall be excluded from the computation of the period specified in this sub-section.

(3) For the purpose of sections 11D, 11E and 11F, the words “relevant date” means—

- (a) the time of payment of sales tax or charge as provided under section 6;
- (b) the time of payment for goods or services on which sales tax was to be withheld under sub-section (7) of section 3; and
- (c) in a case where sales tax or charge has been erroneously refunded, the date of its refund.”

(6) in section 21,—

- (a) in sub-section (2), for the word “blacklist”, the words “issue an order of suspension and blacklisting” shall be substituted; and
- (b) after sub-section (4), the following new sub-section shall be added, namely:—

“(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Chief Commissioner may, either of his own motion or on application made by the registered person call for and examine the record of proceedings and the order of suspension and blacklisting under sub-section (2) and after making such inquiry as is necessary, may modify the such order as he may deems fit:

Provided that no order under this sub-section shall be passed unless an opportunity of being heard has been provided to the registered person.”;

- (7) in section 23, for sub-section (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“(3) A registered person making a taxable supply shall, subject to such conditions, restrictions and limitations as the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, specify to issue electronic invoices.”;

- (8) for section 25, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“25. Audit of sales tax affairs.—(1) The Commissioner on the basis of reasons to be recorded in writing, may direct the officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner to conduct audit of sales tax affairs of any registered person and issue a notice to such registered person intimating him regarding audit of sales tax affairs.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubt, it is declared that the powers of the Commissioner to direct conduct of audit and to issue a notice under this sub-section are independent of the powers of the Board under section 72B and nothing contained in section 72B restricts the powers of the Commissioner to direct conduct of audit and to issue notice under this sub-section.

(2) The Commissioner shall communicate the reasons referred to in sub-section (1) to the registered person whose audit is to be conducted through the notice under sub-section (1).

Explanation.—For the removal of doubt, it is declared that the Commissioner may not provide an opportunity of hearing before issuance of notice under sub-section (1).

(3) The reasons referred to in sub-section (1) shall be based on scrutiny of the available records including sales tax and federal excise returns, income tax returns and withholding statements, financial statements or third party information:

Provided that the reasons shall not include the mere verification of input tax, output tax, refund claim and compliance of legal provisions without identifying risk factors that require such verification.

(4) Subsequent to the issuance of notice under sub-section (1), the officer of Inland Revenue, may call for any record or documents including record maintained under this Act, the rules made thereunder or any other law for the time being in force for conducting audit of the sales tax affairs of the person. Where such record or documents have been kept on electronic data, the registered person shall allow authorize officer of Inland Revenue access to the use of machine and software on which such data is kept and the officer of Inland Revenue may obtain duly attested hard copies of such information or data from the registered person:

Provided that the officer of Inland Revenue shall not call for record or documents of the registered person after expiry of six years from the end of the financial year to which they relate.

(5) The officer of Inland Revenue may require the registered person to attend his office in person or through an authorized representative. The registered person shall produce such accounts, documents or any evidence as the officer of Inland Revenue may consider necessary.

(6) The officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner may conduct or cause to be conducted such enquiry and obtain such information from any third party as he considers appropriate.

(7) The officer of Inland Revenue not below the rank of Assistant Commissioner shall conduct audit of the sales tax affairs to verify the correctness or otherwise of the declared tax liability, output tax, input tax claimed, tax paid, refund claimed, stocks consumed or available for ascertaining compliance or otherwise with the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder on the basis of the record and evidence obtained under sub-sections (5) or (6).

(8) The officer of Inland Revenue may conduct audit proceedings electronically through video links, or any other facility as may be prescribed by the Board.

(9) After completion of the audit, the officer of Inland Revenue may, if required pass an order under section 11E, after providing an opportunity of being heard to the registered person under sub-section (1) of section 11E.

(10) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-sections (7) and (9) where a registered person fails to produce before the officer of Inland Revenue, any accounts, documents or records required to be maintained under this Act or the rules made thereunder or any other relevant document electronically kept record, electronic machine or any other evidence that may be required by the officer of Inland Revenue for the purpose of audit. The officer of Inland Revenue may proceed to make best judgment assessment under section 11D of this Act.

(11) Notwithstanding the penalties prescribed in section 33, if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge voluntarily, whenever it comes to his notice, before receipt of notice of audit, no penalty shall be recovered from him:

Provided that if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge during the audit, or at any time before issuance of show cause notice under section 11E, he may deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 34, and twenty five percent of the penalty payable under section 33:

Provided further that if a registered person wishes to deposit the amount of tax short paid or amount of tax evaded along with default surcharge after issuance of show cause notice under section 11E, he shall deposit the evaded amount of tax, default surcharge under section 34, and full amount of the penalty payable under section 33 and thereafter, the show cause notice, shall stand abated.”;

- (9) In section 26, after omitted sub-section (2), the following new sub-section (2A) shall be inserted, namely:-

“(2A) The officer of Inland Revenue may, by notice in writing, require any person who, in his opinion, is required to file a return under this section for a tax period or tax periods but who has failed to do so, to furnish the return or returns within fifteen days from the date of service of such notice or such longer or shorter period as may be specified in such notice or as the officer of Inland Revenue may allow:

Provided that the notice under this sub-section shall only be issued within fifteen years from the end of the financial year in which the return was to be filed, in cases of tax fraud and five years in all other cases.”;

- (10) 30AB. Tax Fraud Investigation Wing Inland Revenue.—(1) There shall be established a wing to be known as Tax Fraud Investigation Wing-Inland Revenue.
